CITY AND VICINITY.

The tax books for 1889 are now ready. Everybody will please come forward and pay his taxes at once. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.

The city council of Harrodsburg has fixed $15 as the yearly fee for auctioneers in that town. Stanford put it at $10 and drove off all who cried property here.

It is settled that the State troops are coming to Crab Orchard to encamp and that they will arrive between the 20th and 25th.

There never was such a year for vegetables as this. The man who gave his garden half a show can't gather them as fast as they grow.

ONE of the applicants for a teacher's certificate wrote the names of Dick Warren and Joe Montgomery in the list in answer to "name the five most distinguished statesmen in Kentucky."

PROF. HUBBARD will have out his circulars in a few days announcing his faculty and other business connected with the Stanford Female College. Address him, stating postoffice, and he will send you one.

THE rads will meet here Saturday to consider the advisability of nominating a candidate for the legislature. Let 'em nominate. Dick Warren is going to be elected, no matter how many are entered in the race.

At the close of Miss Eva Bradley's school at Rowland, little Miss Etta Gaines received a gold medal for general good deportment, awarded by a vote of the entire school. As a token of her untiring efforts in their behalf, the scholars presented Miss Bradley with a very handsome present.

As Dr. Cox was treating the town to a glance at his new drummer's wagon and span Saturday, one of the horses fell, badly wounding his knee and breaking up the show for the day. The Dr. escaped unhurt, but unsatisfied with the exhibition and retired to his home until his horses are put in better training.

SOME one-of-a-kind-cook turned on the fire alarm Saturday night by yelling "fire" half a dozen or more times, scaring the citizens as well as causing them to break their peaceful slumbers. A repetition of this will bring out our fire engine, which will be used to drown the scamp who indulges in such foolish mischief.

CRAB ORCHARD is almost solid for Dick Warren for the legislature, and our republican friends will have to put up their best man to hold their party together in this race. We have heard more than one republican say that he would have to be a mighty good republican, and made of the right kind of "stuff" for them to support him.—C. O. Cor. in Lancaster News.

THE community was shocked to learn last week that Mr. R. E. Barrow had been suddenly paralyzed. He retired at night in his usual health and during the night his wife heard him making a peculiar noise. She endeavored to arouse him, but found that he was rigid. Dr. Bronaugh was sent for and pronounced it paralysis, the entire left side being affected, together with the brain. His mind was clearing a little yesterday and his symptoms were better, though he is in a very critical condition.

CENTRAL UNIVERSITY, which last year had 312 matriculations, is preparing to exceed even that fine record next session. A preparatory department is being built and numerous other additions and improvements are being made to accommodate the increased number of pupils which will attend. It is one of the best institutions of learning in the South and is a pride to every Kentuckian. See notice in this issue and write to Chancellor L. H. Blanton for catalogue and further information.

FRIDAY was the day set for the examination of public school teachers. Owing to the critical illness of Superintendent J. A. Bogle, he was unable to attend and Judge Varnon appointed Mr. W. F. McClary to fill his position temporarily.

THIRTY-six teachers presented themselves for the full examination and 20 for the civil government examination and it required all of Friday and most of Saturday for the examiners, Miss Kate Bogle and Prof. S. J. Pulliam, to complete their work, the result of which will be announced next Friday, when the teachers will hear their doom.

JUDGE VARNON yesterday ordered an election to fill the vacancy in the office of Superintendent of Common Schools, made vacant by the death of Rev. J. A. Bogle, and appointed W. F. McClary to fill the office till a successor is elected and qualified. There seems to be no lack of candidates for the position. Miss Kate Bogle, the very accomplished daughter of the deceased, will be a candidate to fill out his term and is highly deserving of such honor. Mr. W. F. McClary, also a well-qualified man, and several others will also be candidates.

—The Christian Church will hold a camp meeting in a large tent at Downey, Cal., beginning on the 26th, for the purpose of preaching the gospel and deliberating together as to the further dissemination of the truth. Elder Carroll Kendrick sends us an invitation.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—The Gem Theatre, Louisville, burned Sunday morning and every decent man in the city is glad.

—A brewery at Milwaukee, consisting of seven large buildings, burned, entailing a loss of over a million of dollars.

—Frank McGee, confined in the Louisville jail on a charge of petit larceny, was killed from a fall from a balcony.

—Eighty-four shares of First National Bank stock sold at Harrodsburg at $150 and 10 shares of Mercer National at $121.

—Secretary Noble has accepted the resignation of Gen. Joe Johnson as commissioner of railroads, to take effect July 10th.

—At Grand Rapids, Mich., Miss Nellie Hopkins cut her throat with a razor because her lover walked off an embankment and was drowned.

—It is now certainly known that 17 people were killed in the railroad accident near Lynchburg, but how many more will perhaps remain a mystery.

—Prof. Allen had his balloon to collapse when 1,200 feet above Providence, R. I., and he fell to the earth, and strange to say received but slight injuries.

—The coroner's jury finds that the owners of the dam at Conemaugh are responsible for the fearful catastrophe in not making it as secure as it should have been.

—Ten blocks of the best portion of Ellettsburg, W. T., burned on the 4th. Nearly 100 families are homeless and the loss is stated at $2,000,000. The fire originated from the fireworks display.

—The grand stand from which 1,000 people were witnessing the 4th of July races at Oklahoma City, I. T., collapsed. Several men were killed and nearly a hundred people were badly injured.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Miss Elsie Govan, of Jackson, Miss., is visiting Miss Nannie McDowell. Dr. L. S. McMurtry leaves for Louisville this week to make that city his home. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Keller, Jr., of Stanford, spent Sunday with Mrs. W. F. Evans.

Mrs. J. E. Farris and family, of Stanford, visited Mrs. W. C. Price last week. Miss Wharton, of Springfield, left Monday for her home, after a pleasant visit to Miss Maggie Caldwell.

—Deputy Collector Walker Landrum passed through Danville en route from Harrodsburg to Lancaster Saturday. He has been in his office one week now, and says the duties of deputy are much more arduous and constant than when Capt. Sam Miller filled the office, while the salary has been reduced from $1,200 to $900 and it is not by any means the "soft snap" many dreamed it to be.

—Mr. Woodford G. Danlap was in town Saturday night and states that he has accepted the position of General Deputy Collector for Kentucky, which position he declined sometime ago, and will not be sent to the mountains to be a target for the moonshiners. General Deputy for Kentucky is simply revenue agent for Kentucky, who visits all distilleries in Kentucky and when the case demands it makes seizures of the same. His salary will be $1,800 and duties comparatively light.

—Miss Sharp, of Shelbyville, who has been visiting Mr. R. M. Fisher's family, left for home Friday. Mr. H. E. Samuel, for the past 30 years a druggist here, has been confined to his room for a week, but is improving and hopes soon to appear at his post.

—There is no abatement in the sickness among the children, reported last week. Many adults are added to the list of those complaining. The majority of cases, both young and old, seems to be summer complaints, while a few are severe attacks of malarial fever.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—A coal company is opening up mines near Sinks, on the K. C. road.

—A good crowd attended the lecture delivered here Friday evening by Miss Laura Clay on woman suffrage.

—The way the conductors are carrying out instructions it is difficult to get on a train without a ticket. If one should get on the train is stopped and passenger sent to ticket office for his pastboard.

—It is difficult to understand what Tanner, the commissioner of pensions, had to do with the Sigman trial, or why he should be informed of the result by anyone. A letter picked up here to that individual showing who the contrary jurymen was, etc., appears rather strange, when it is well known that all the jurymen were of Sigman's political belief.

—A district convention for nominating a candidate for State Senator for this district met here Friday last. Estill county placed the name of J. B. Wiseman before the convention as their candidate. Rockcastle presented the name of Tom Jim Ballard, Madison declined to present a candidate, leaving it to the other two counties to settle. Rockcastle and Estill had eight votes each and after taking six ballots without reaching a nomination it was agreed that the delegates of the two contending counties should retire to an ante room and come to some agreement. After a consultation of 15 minutes the name of A. T. Chennault, of Madison county, was agreed upon and his nomination was made unanimous.

Eld. J. Q. Montgomery writes: "Please state in your next issue that I am not the preacher at Middleburg, Casey county, church and that the statement that they had gone back on me as the preacher is false."
